

Meet Tim Hutchinson

Speaker, author, happily married parent, and an E.M.T. credited with saving two lives – a very different person from the depressed and bullied teen who once thought violence was the only solution. Instead of resorting to violence, he now teaches how to PREVENT bullying.

Just when teens think their situation is hopeless; Tim will give them options they may not realize are available to them – he offers them hope and a positive way out. From him they'll learn how to avoid bullying and live a life free from violence.

An unforgettable seminar that gets right to the root of the problem –

These powerful presentations come from the unique perspective of someone who's been there, yet found faith in himself and society to turn his life completely around, and are designed specifically to:

- Eliminate bullying and the violence that often goes with it.
- Promote tolerance and acceptance of differences.
- Help teens – and young adults – find the keys to a successful, happy life.

“...the students were mesmerized by his presentation and were truly and visibly affected by what they heard. Without a doubt Tim's presentation was the best I have ever heard given to a high school audience.

Guidance Counselor

“Mr. Hutchinson delivers a very powerful message in a way that teens can understand; he speaks from experience and not from ‘the pulpit’...he reaches the very core of where students are at in their own personal struggles. I highly recommend Mr. Hutchinson as a speaker for teens!”

Stop the Bullying / Heal the Hurt

How many kids wake up in the morning and are afraid to go to school? 75% of kids report being bullied or teased each school year, and 40% are frequent victims of bullying. Research has shown the severity of cases has reached crisis level. Going through the teen years is already enough of a challenge without having to deal with the amount of bullying that surrounds them. It is imperative that we reach them before they become another lost and hurting teen – the kind that frequently believes violence is the only solution!

“My daughter, Rachel Scott, was the first student murdered at Columbine High School on April 20th, 1999. Hutchinson’s [life] is the compelling, dramatic story of a man who found his solution through, not religion, but genuine personal faith. This is what carried us through the pain we suffered when Rachel was killed. ”

Darrell Scott
Columbine High School Parent

Hutchinson clearly tells teens how they can get out of the tangled web of bullying and violence, and live a happy and productive life. By showing teens what steps he took in his life to turn things around, and achieve great results that are still paying off, his presentation will have a profound impact on their lives.

Now your school can hear Tim Hutchinson’s powerful message of hope against adversity
